Founded in 2000, the Regent Journal of International Law is the first Judeo-Christian academic forum for scholarly reviews of international law. The Journal's mission is to publish incisive analyses of international legal issues by distinguished scholars and notable practitioners in the international field. Through its publications, the Journal embodies the calling of Regent University - "Christian Leadership to Change the World."

EDITORIAL POLICY STATEMENT

The Regent Journal of International Law is a bi-annual publication of the International Law Society, an official student organization under the authority of the Regent University School of Law. The views expressed in the Journal are those of individual contributors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial board, Regent University School of Law, its administration and faculty, or Regent University.

Subscriptions: The Journal invites the financial support of all who believe in the active inclusion of Judeo-Christian perspectives on important issues of international law. If you are interested in subscribing to, purchasing advertising space from, or making a tax-deductible contribution to the Journal, please address all correspondence to Editor-in-Chief, Regent Journal of International Law, Regent University School of Law, 1000 Regent University Drive, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23464-9880. Subscriptions are $20.00 domestic; $25.00 foreign surface mail payable in advance.

Submissions: The Journal welcomes the submission of scholarly articles, manuscripts, essays, reviews and bibliographies in all areas of international law. If you are interested in submitting your work, send a hard copy and one electronic copy (MS Word format) to Editor-in-Chief, Regent Journal of International Law, Regent University School of Law, 1000 Regent University Drive, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23464-9880. Citations in submitted works should use footnotes and conform to THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (19th ed. 2010). Submissions should be in English and include your mailing address, telephone numbers and email address. In addition, please include an abstract and a brief biographical sketch. All submissions become the property of the Journal.

Permission to Copy: All articles are copyright ©2012 Regent Journal of International Law (ISSN #1538-7550), except where otherwise expressly indicated. For permission to reprint an article or any portion thereof, please address your written request to the holder of the copyright. For any article that the Regent Journal of International Law holds the copyright, permission is granted to reprint any portion of the article for educational purposes, including distribution to students, provided that in the case of copies duplicated in class, students are charged no more than the cost of duplication; the article is identified on each copy according to THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (19th ed. 2010); proper notice of copyright is affixed to each copy; and the Journal is notified in writing of the use. Printed by Darby Printing Company, Atlanta, Georgia.
